

GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERN

Responsibilities

Rodebjer is looking for a Graphic Design Intern. You'll get to experience the fun and fast paced fashion industry where no day is like the other. The Graphic Design intern will work closely together with our Art Director on a wide range of projects related to the visual development of the Rodebjer brand and assist the Art Director and marketing department in daily work.

Requirements

- Knowledge of Adobe Indesign, Photoshop and Illustrator
- Have a great interest in photography and design
- Thrive in a fast paced environment
- Fluent in English and Swedish

How to apply

Send an email with CV and cover letter to info@rodebjer.com

About Rodebjer

Rodebjer was founded in New York in 1999 by native Swede Carin Rodebjer. After being spotted on the streets of Manhattan wearing her handmade designs, Carin Rodebjer started selling her clothes to friends and to stores in New York and Stockholm. Today, Rodebjer is available in over 20 countries.

Rodebjer's quest is to enhance personalities by simplifying everyday clothing decisions through relevant, timeless and versatile fashion that meet the many needs of the modern woman.

Signature silhouettes include slouchy suits and sets, drapey caftans and easy-to-wear dresses and kimonos—clothes that easily moves from day into night and from work to leisure. Rodebjer is strongly inspired by the human rights and feminist movements, and by individuals with the courage to live by their own rules. Carin Rodebjer has won several awards and her clothes continuously receive positive reviews from the international fashion community.

Rodebjer

Sveavägen 47, 113 49 Stockholm
rodebjer.com