

RODEBJER IS LOOKING FOR A DESIGN ASSISTANT ON PART TIME

The Rodebjer design team is looking for an organized and talented Design Assistant to join our fast growing company. This is an opportunity to work in a fast-paced environment at the core of our business, where your role is to support the daily design process at Rodebjer.

The key responsibilities of this role includes creating tech packs and sketches, organizing and maintaining structure of our materials library as well as creating color cards and assembling mood boards under guidance by our Design Manager. An eye for, and special interest in, Accessories and Footwear is beneficial as the role will include a closer work within these product groups. Strong organizational skills are required. You will be following the directions set up by the Design Manager and reporting organizationally to the Operations Director.

You should have a positive, flexible and unpretentious attitude with a design vision in line with our brand aesthetics. You will be part of a tight and positive team where respect and team work is key.

Profile & Qualifications

- Excellent in Illustrator
- Documented design education

Apply with your resume and cover letter to Design Manager Karin Fritz at karin.fritz@rodebjer.com. We will interview candidates continuously so please submit your application as soon as possible. The position is a 1 year temporary position on 70% starting 2019-01. Position is stationed at our head office on Östermalmsgatan 87a.

About Rodebjer

Rodebjer was founded in New York in 1999 by native Swede Carin Rodebjer. After being spotted on the streets of Manhattan wearing her handmade designs, Carin Rodebjer started selling her clothes to friends and to stores in New York and Stockholm. Today, Rodebjer is available in over 20 countries.

Rodebjer's quest is to enhance personalities by simplifying everyday clothing decisions through relevant, timeless and versatile fashion that meet the many needs of the modern woman.

Signature silhouettes include slouchy suits and sets, drapery caftans and easy-to-wear dresses and kimonos — clothes that easily moves from day into night and from work to leisure. Rodebjer is strongly inspired by the human rights and feminist movements, and by individuals with the courage to live by their own rules. Carin Rodebjer has won several awards and her clothes continuously receive positive reviews from the international fashion community.

Rodebjer

Östermalmsgatan 87a, 114 59 Stockholm
rodebjer.com